¿Qué hay en la mochila?

A bright, empty classroom with large windows on the left, a whiteboard on the back wall, and rows of desks and chairs. Sunlight streams in from the windows, casting shadows on the floor. A teacher's desk with a computer monitor is positioned near the windows.

¿Qué hay en el barrio?

¿Qué hay en la biblioteca?

A photograph of a busy indoor market, likely a butcher shop or a section of a supermarket. The scene is filled with people shopping. In the foreground, a man in a black jacket with blue stripes on the sleeve is looking at a display of meat. To his left, a woman in a black coat and red scarf is pushing a shopping cart. Further back, another woman is visible. The stalls are filled with various cuts of meat, including what appears to be pork and chicken. The lighting is bright, and the atmosphere is lively. The text "¿Qué hay en el mercado?" is overlaid on the bottom of the image in a white rounded rectangle.

A wooden wardrobe with a light-colored wood grain. The central section has a hanging bar with several shirts in shades of blue, white, and patterned. Below the shirts are three stacks of folded clothes: blue jeans, tan shirts, and dark trousers. At the bottom of this section, three pairs of pants (blue jeans, tan, and dark) are hanging. To the right, a long olive-green parka hangs on a wooden hanger. At the bottom of the wardrobe, a shoe rack holds several pairs of shoes: brown leather boots, white sneakers, and black dress shoes. A white banner with black text is overlaid across the middle of the image.

¿Qué hay en el armario?

An open refrigerator with its doors wide open, revealing its interior shelves and compartments. The refrigerator is white and appears to be a modern, energy-efficient model. Inside, there are several food items: a bottle of milk on the top shelf, a carton of eggs on the second shelf, a bunch of red tomatoes and a bunch of green apples on the third shelf, and a wedge of yellow cheese on the bottom shelf. The refrigerator is well-lit, and the food items are clearly visible. The text "¿Qué hay en el refrigerador?" is overlaid on the bottom of the image in a large, bold, black font.

A wide-angle photograph of a large, modern indoor swimming pool. The pool is filled with clear blue water and is divided into several lanes by blue and white lane lines. Several people are swimming in the pool, some in the foreground and others further back. The pool is surrounded by a light-colored tiled deck. Large windows line the walls, allowing natural light to enter the space. The ceiling is high and white, with some lighting fixtures visible. The overall atmosphere is bright and clean.
